

Traffic Revisions

Bias Revisions

- Change Shawn Boateng's avatar to a character with light skin
- Change Sebastian Gomez's last name to Anderson

Traffic Interview Transcript Revisions

General Notes about the Changes

Changes Required	CE Feedback
	Taken from a meeting transcript
All interviews should start with checking on the safety of the drivers.	And the first thing you need to ask is, are you OK? Do you need medical assistance?" You don't ask anything else. If the person needs an ambulance or care, then you need to call it, right. That's the most important thing. It's under the Police Services act. It's about community safety and. And public safety first. So the first thing is, are you OK? And then, you know, the answer would be yes.

At least one witness from each scenario should be asked about road and weather conditions.	We should include not just weather conditions, but road conditions. Yep. Because that's fundamental for an investigation, road conditions.
Remove questions about winter tires	Do you have winter tires on your vehicle? OK, that might be a fair question later, but it's not illegal not to have winter tires kind of all seasons. I think I would start with "Where were you coming from and where were you going? Can you tell me what happened leading up to The accident?" "But let's talk about the tires. Unfortunately not, and I neglected to find the time for that before winter." That's not language that people would use. "I really kicked myself" No - They'll be like, no, they're all seasons. They'll. You know, maybe I should look into getting a pair of winter, a set of winter tires or. I don't need them. They're all seasons, like. You know, as an investigator, I'm like, were your brakes working? Because now that is more relevant to me than tires.
Remove tow truck questions	Don't ask that question. You are making a decision there: "Your car's pretty damaged, we will be calling for a tow truck." It's not this interplay about that, First tow truck on the scene, that's the spot they're taking it and you're going. That's not part of the conversation.

Characters with revisions are below. Characters that are not listed do not require revisions. Questions that have ID Notes have a change of some kind.

Legend:

~~Strikethrough~~ = remove question and answer

Green table fill = New question and answer (requires new audio recording)

Yellow highlight = punctuation/grammar change

Scenario 1

Michelle E. Oliverio with Revisions

Question	Response	Changes Required
Are you feeling okay? Do you require any medical attention?	Oh, I'm ok. Thank you for asking. Just a little shaken up and embarrassed.	Take this question and answer out of the unlockable and move it to the first question asked.  Change comma to a question mark and capitalize the next sentence.
May I have your driver's license, ownership and insurance slip please.	Sure, my name is Michelle E. Oliverio.	Add a period to the end of the sentence in the response.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	 It was dark and I didn't see the intersection coming up. When I saw the red light, I tried stopping but it was too late. It was slippery, and I slid right through the light. I couldn't stop, and I hit the traffic light pole ...traffic light pole.	Add a period to the end of the witness response.
ABC Towing will be towing your vehicle.	Okay, thank you.	Remove this question and response.
Are you feeling alright?	I'm fine, thank you.	Remove this question and response.

Do you have winter tires on your vehicle?	Unfortunately not, I just haven't had the time for that before winter. I'm really kicking myself now!	Remove this question and response.
Were your brakes working properly?	Yes, they were working fine. The roads were just so slippery!	Add this question and response as per CE feedback.
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Scenario 2

Lisa Pena with Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Are you alright? Do you require any medical attention?	No, I'm fine thank you.
May I have your driver's license, ownership and insurance slip please.	Sure, my name is Lisa Pena.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	I was just stopped at the stop sign, waiting for a jogger to clear the intersection, getting ready to make my left when this idiot smashed into me! Probably on their phone or something.
Unlocked by Cellphone pic  What happened next?		Move the unlockable question to this order (instead of below that 'that'll be all comment).

What were the road and weather conditions like?	Totally fine. It was nice outside, and the road was clear.	Add this question, as per CE comments about the importance of including road and weather conditions.
Did you happen to notice if the other driver was following you for a while? If so, were they keeping an appropriate distance?	 He's been behind me since we both turned left onto Grand River at Pearson Ave – but he was fairly well back until I stopped and waited for the jogger to clear the intersection.
ABC towing will be towing your vehicle.	Okay, thank you.	Remove tow truck statement.
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Kyle Evans Revisions

Question	Responses	ID Notes
Are you alright? Do you require any medical attention?	No, I'm fine thank you.
May I have your driver's license, ownership and insurance slip please.	Sure, my name is Kyle Evans.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	 Unfortunately, I rear-ended that SUV – I'm sorry. I literally didn't even see the car in front of me! The stop sign came up so fast, I didn't expect it. Uh, I guess I was daydreaming a bit.
ABC Towing will be towing your vehicle.	Okay, thank you.	Remove

Have you consumed any drugs or alcohol before getting behind the wheel today?	No, no. I would never do that then drive.
So, did you see the jogger?	What jogger?	Fix punctuation in question:  Did you see the jogger? (Question currently ends with a period)
Unlockable: Were you texting, talking or searching for anything on your cell phone?		Revise the wording of the daydreaming question to align with CE feedback. "So I might say. Very specifically, were you? Texting or talking or searching anything on your cell phone?"
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Scenario 3

David Short- With Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Can I get your name please?	Sure, my name is David Short
Can you tell me exactly what happened?
Unlockable What makes you think the woman was not paying attention?		The order of this question is moved up to go with the previous statement about not paying attention.

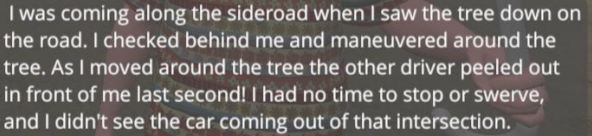

How fast would you say both vehicles were travelling?	I would say the speed limit.
Did either vehicle honk their horn prior to impact?	No, they didn't - I think it all just happened so fast. I think the person in the Audi may have assumed that the SUV driver was going to turn left after they passed, but misread the situation.
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Katie Singh- With Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Can I get your name please?	Sure, my name is Katie Singh	Move this to be the first question.
Did you see what happened?	The SUV was coming up to the intersection and she didn't seem to notice that she wasn't in her lane. The Audi was also coming into the intersection - it looked as though she was going to swerve to avoid hitting the SUV, but it was too late.
What were the road and weather conditions at the time of the collision?	The weather was clear, and the roads were dry.	Add this question as per CE feedback and to provide more valuable questions in this sim.
How fast would you say they were traveling?	I don't know, it was honestly hard for me to tell.
That'll be all for now, thank you.

Scenario 4

Garry Hiram- With Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Are you okay? Do you require medical assistance?	I'm okay, thanks. Just a bit shaken up.	Question added.
Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?	Sure, I'm Garry Hiram.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?
What were the road and weather conditions like at the time of the collision?	It was raining hard and already dark out. The roads were not too bad, except for the tree, of course.	Add question.
Have you consumed any drugs or alcohol today?	No way. I would never do that and drive.
ABC Towing will be towing your vehicle	OK, thank you.	Remove
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Rodger Vossen- With Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Are you okay? Do you require medical assistance?	Yes, luckily, I was not injured.	Health question added to the top.
Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration, and insurance?	I'm Rodger Vossen.	Roger is spelled differently in the CC. Looks like it is spelled with a 'd' everywhere except at the title of the witness questions and in the cc. Please make the spelling of Rodger consistent in the sim.  Add a period to the end of the response.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	 I was turning out of my neighbourhood onto the sideroad. I looked both ways and couldn't see any cars coming. I noticed the tree was down but I couldn't see any car coming behind it. When I took the left onto the sideroad the car came out of nowhere and took me out! I'm not sure how fast he was going but it must've been over the limit as I had no time to react.
Have you consumed any drugs or alcohol today	No, I have not. Why would you ask that? I'm the victim here!
How fast were you traveling?	 I couldn't have been going more than 15-20km into that turn since I was just stopped.
Roughly how fast was the other driver traveling?	 I'd say at least 70km, which is 20 over the limit for this road.
That will be all for now thank you.

Scenario 5

Bryan Almers- with Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Are you feeling okay? Do you require medical assistance.	I'm okay, thanks.	Question added.
Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?	Sure, my name is Bryan Almers.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	It all happened so fast, I didn't see anyone as I approached the intersection, so I thought I was clear to make a left turn, but by the time I saw her in my headlights it was too late and I...I hit her....I hope she's ok. I feel just terrible.
What were the road and weather conditions like at the time of the collision?	They were both fine. It was a nice night, and the road was dry.
Have you consumed any drugs or alcohol before getting behind the wheel today?	No, no none whatsoever.
I see on your license that you require glasses or contact lenses while driving- were you wearing glasses when the accident occurred?	Admittedly, no, I forgot them at home - I didn't think it would be a big deal since I was just going out to run a quick errand. Oh gosh, maybe if I had them on, this would not have happened. I feel so terrible. I don't wear contacts.	Change 'lens' to 'lenses'
ABC Towing is here and they are taking your vehicle	Oh. Ok thank you.	Remove

That'll be all for now, thank you!
------------------------------------	--	--

Scenario 6

Shawn Boateng with Revisions

Current Question	Current Response	ID Notes
Are you feeling okay? Do you require any medical assistance?	Yeah, I'm okay.	Added question.
Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?	Uh, yeah. I'm Shawn. Last name, Boateng.	Change the order of questions. Ask about name before asking about what happened.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?
What were the road and weather conditions like at the time of the collision?	The weather was nice, and I think the road was clear.
ABC Towing will take your vehicle to the impound lot.	Ok thanks, I will need a ride though.	Remove
Unlockable  I noticed there is an empty can of beer in the front

passenger of your vehicle. Did you drink that beer?	 The screenshot shows a virtual scene with a character named Shawn Boateng. A dialogue box on the left contains the following text: "Q1 Can you tell me exactly what happened?", "Q2 Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?", "Q3 ABC Towing will take your vehicle to the impound lot.", "Q4 I noticed there is an empty can of beer in the front passenger of your vehicle. Did you drink that beer?", and "Q5 That'll be all for now, thank you!". The character is standing in a virtual environment with a sunset background. The bottom of the image shows logos for Unity, WebGL, and Conestoga-TrafficScene.
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Scenario 7

Mary-Ann M. Kovacs with Revisions

Question	Responses	ID Notes
I noticed that your airbags were deployed. Are you feeling ok? Do you require any medical attention?	 The screenshot shows the lower half of a character wearing a blue jacket with a black belt. The character is standing in a virtual environment.	This is a question that should be asked first and should not rely on evidence being unlocked. Remove this from the unlockable list and place it first. Change the punctuation in the question to match what is seen here.

Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?	Yes of course. My name is Mary-Ann Kovacs.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	I was coming down the on-ramp at...pause...normal speeds, I'd say, and then all of a sudden I'm sliding and drifting towards a pickup in my blindspot! I feel terrible about the poor man in the truck. I really hope he's going to be okay, do you think that he's going to be okay?! Please I don't know what happened, I'm just so scared and confused!
When you say 'normal' speed, how fast do you think you were going?	I was matching the speed of traffic, so probably like....85 k, maximum!
Do you need assistance calling for a tow, or arranging transportation?	I'll be ok, I've got CAA, they're enroute to help.		Remove
Have you consumed any drugs or alcohol before getting behind the wheel today?	No, no, nothing like that.
Unlockable  Do you remember breaking, or swerving before or after the collision?	I don't remember having any control over the vehicle at all. It was really scary!
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Karen Stevens with Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Are you feeling ok after witnessing the accident? Do you require any support resources?	I'm ok - it was scary, but I'll be fine. I just hope that young man is ok!	Move this up to the first question and change punctuation.
Can I get your name please?	Of course, Officer. I'm Karen, Karen Stevens.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	Yes - I saw everything. The SUV driver was going way too fast, and I swear they were trying to merge before clearing their lane, so bang! That's when she hit that poor young man in the pick-up! Such recklessness!
How fast do you think the SUV was traveling?	I'd say they were going close to 100 km! So unsafe! Especially with the black ice being everywhere! People need to be more careful!
Did the pick-up driver remain in his lane?	Yes, he did. The SUV driver is to blame here!
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Scenario 8

Sebastian Gomez with Revisions

Questions	Responses	ID Notes
Are you feeling okay? Do you require any medical attention?	I'm okay. Just feeling a bit sore.	Need to start with health question.
Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?	Of course. I'm Sebastian Anderson. Gomez.	Change last name to Anderson.
Can you tell me exactly what happened?	 I was heading down the on-ramp, when all of a sudden, an old water bottle rolled underneath my pedals, and when I got back up from it, all I saw was the truck's tailgate.	Add commas to the response.
What were the road and weather conditions like when the collision occurred?	It was sunny outside and the road was clear.	Add question about weather/road conditions.
Have you consumed any drugs or alcohol before getting behind the wheel today?	 Umm. I consumed some weed gummies a few nights ago.

Would you describe yourself as a safe driver?	I'd like to think so, yeah. I know I don't always follow the rules of the road to a T, but I'm not reckless by any means!	Remove this question.
ABC Towing will be towing your vehicle	Oh, OK, thanks.	Remove
Unlockable  Were you eating while driving today?	Umm, yes. But nothing elaborate, just a sandwich. I drive and eat all the time, I'm confident enough to do it safely.
Unlockable  I noticed the opened consumable cannabis wrapper on your passenger seat. When is that from?	Oh yeah, that's from a few nights ago. Not today.
That'll be all for now, thank you!

Chin Yang with Revisions

I noticed that the other driver's airbags were deployed- are you feeling ok, do you require any medical attention?	My neck is quite sore, though no ambulance is necessary, thank you. I can take myself to a doctor as soon as we're done here.	Medical attention questions go first, and should not rely on being unlocked.  Remove unlock from this question and move it to the top.
Can I get your name please? As well as your license, registration and insurance?	I'm Chin Yang, I'll get those other things.

Can you tell me exactly what happened?	 This &amp;%^*&amp;^% was eating while driving, not paying attention, and rear-ended me. Now I'm in pain, and this person better be held accountable for my injuries and damage to my car!
Your vehicle does not appear to be damaged, are you comfortable with driving it, or do you need assistance sourcing a tow?	 It'll be ok to drive; as long as all the photos were taken for insurance and court purposes. I'll take this unsafe &amp;%^*&amp;^% driver to court if I have to, he'll pay for this!	Remove question.
Unlockable  Can you confirm that you saw the driver eating when he hit you?	 One hundred percent! I saw him eating in my rearview mirror, when I looked when I could feel that he was approaching too quickly. One hundred percent! I saw everything in my rearview mirror. He was eating while he was approaching too quickly.	Adjust phrasing of response.
That'll be all for now, thank you!		